

Farmer Dan and his big brother Stan were always busy at Sunybank Farm, repairing and replacing fences to keep their animals safe, especially near any busy roads. Today they were working along part of the Garthdale Road, near Sunnybank River. Dan and Stan decided to share the work between them.

