

The sun was shining, and the birds were singing happily. Farmer Dan's big brother Stan drove the little old grey tractor back from Applegarth Village to Sunnybank Farm. He stopped at the bottom of Sunnybank Lane to let the traffic go past on the main road. The little tractor started to shudder and shake.

