A Star Is Born

1. It's News Time

Chorus

It's news time..., the six o'clock news
It's news time... , (with) reports and views
We're right up to date, from Bethlehem town
Where there's a new King, he's about to be crowned
It's news time... , the six o'clock news

Here are the headlines... No more room at the inn!
Here are the headlines... Sheep lost and wander-ing!
Here are the headlines... A new King born today
Here are the headlines... Let's shout hip hooray!

Chorus

To our reporter... For up to date news!
To our reporter... To hear shepherds' views!
To our reporter... For the Inn Keeper's thoughts
To our reporter... What the Wise Men brought!

Chorus x 2

2. The Shepherds' Story

We were lying on the hillside, looking after the sheep
When a bright light awoke us, from our deep deep sleep
A heavenly angel appeared with a message for us all
A new king had been born in a lowly stall

Chorus

Go into town
To find the baby King newly crowned
Tell everyone, spread it all around
Let the people know what's going down

We ran down the hillside following the light of a star
Leaving all the sheep to wander, yonder, afar
An appointment with new royalty we had to keep
We must see the baby, there's no time for sleep!

Chorus

Continued...

We ran through the streets of the busy town,
To find the holy child with the golden crown,
We finally found the place where the new King lay,
Born in a stable there he was sleeping on the hay.

Chorus x 2

3. The Wise Men's Story

Chorus

We are three wise men we come from afar
Crossing the desert to follow a star
Climbing the mountains we look up in awe
.....It's the Magi's mystical tour

We started from the palace of Herod the king
Bearing gifts such beautiful things
By camel train we rode rough for many a mile
Always in single file

Chorus

To Bethlehem town where we looked for the Inn
Frankincense, Gold, and Myrrh, for him
We finally found the stable simple and bare
Jesus was lying there

Chorus x 2

4. The Innkeeper

Chorus

There were no rooms... no rooms at the inn
I really couldn't squeeze... anyone in
Everyone's arrived, in Bethlehem town
But there were no rooms, none could be found

Since first thing this morning
I've been rushed off my feet
The inn has been busy, the crowd's made me dizzy
You couldn't move in that street
All looking for somewhere to sleep

Chorus

The sign was up in the window
There are 'No-Vacancies here'
They still knocked on my door, I told them the score
I thought I'd made it clear
We're absolutely full, I fear!

Chorus

Mary and her husband Joseph
Were the very last guests to call
'I'm sorry' I said, 'I haven't a bed'
Just the stable - but that's all
So they rested in the stall

Chorus x 2

5. Mary And Joseph

In the town of Nazareth
An angel came to Mary to say
You shall give birth to a golden child
On this very special day
The boy is the Son of God, His name is Jesus

In the town of Nazareth
An angel came to Joseph to say
Mary's babe is a golden child
And this will be a special day
The boy is the Son of God, His name is Jesus

Mary and Joseph travelled afar
To Bethlehem, Joseph's hometown
No room at the inn but in a stable bare
Amongst the hay they settled down

There the little boy was borne
In a manger, as the angel had said
Mary's boy was a golden child
Lying on his stable bed
The boy is the Son of God, His name is Jesus

Continued...

Peace on earth, a day of joy
Shepherds, wise men, gifts they did bring
For this babe was a golden child
All welcome to the newborn King
The boy is the Son of God, His name is Jesus

Everyone be happy, everyone rejoice
Listen as the angels say
Everyone dance, and sing in good voice
This is the first Christmas Day
The boy is the Son of God, His name is Jesus

6. Tidings Of Great Joy

In Bethlehem town, now we do say
On this very special first Christmas Day
Everyone! Celebrate the birth of the boy
It's time to be happy, tidings of great joy

Born in a stable for the world to see
There in a manger baby Jesus is He
Everyone! Celebrate the birth of the boy
It's time to be happy, tidings of great Joy

Sweet baby Jesus does soundly sleep
With Mary and Joseph warm amongst the sheep
Everyone! Celebrate the birth of the boy
It's time to be happy, tidings of great joy

The three Wise Men, and the Shepherds too
All come to visit, and rejoice with you
Everyone! Celebrate the birth of the boy
It's time to be happy, tidings of great joy

In Bethlehem town, now we do say
On this very special first Christmas Day
Everyone! Celebrate the birth of the boy
It's time to be happy, tidings of great joy
