THE GRAND OLD DUKE OF YORK

Oh the grand old Duke of York
He had ten thousand men
He marched them up to the top of the hill
And he marched them down again
And when they were up, they were up
And when they were down, they were down
And when they were only half way up
They were neither up nor down

Oh the grand old Duke of York
He had ten thousand men
They played their pipes to the top of the hill
And they played them down again
And when they were up, they were up
And when they were down, they were down
And when they were only half way up
They were neither up nor down

Oh the grand old Duke of York
He had ten thousand men
They banged their drums to the top of the hill
And they banged them down again
And when they were up, they were up
And when they were down, they were down
And when they were only half way up
They were neither up nor down

FARMER BROWN

Farmer Brown drove into town to take his goods to market
But found his car too big by far and didn't know where to park it

(chorus)

He drove it up, he drove it down, he drove it all around the town
He drove it up, he drove it down, he drove it all around the town

"I cannot see a place that's free, it seems they've all been taken"
He said as he drove round and round with all his eggs and bacon

(chorus)

At last he found an empty space and there he chose to park it
He took out what he had to sell and marched off to the market

(chorus)

But sad to say he was too late, the market now had ended
And Farmer Brown's drive into town was not what he intended

(chorus - repeat)

Three pretty girls were in them then
Were in them then, were in them then

One could whistle another could sing
And the other could play on the violin
Such joy was there at my wedding

SING A SONG OF SIXPENCE

Sing a song of sixpence a pocket full of rye
Four and twenty blackbirds baked in a pie
When the pie was opened the birds began to sing
Wasn't that a dainty dish to set before the King

The Queen was in the parlour eating bread and honey
The maid was in the garden hanging out the clothes
Along came a blackbird and pecked off her nose
